

Riverkeeper Confidentiality/Non-Competition Agreement

In the course of your work at Riverkeeper, you are likely to have access to confidential information.

You must not misuse confidential information about Riverkeeper, or any other company, organization, or individual in any way. This means you should not pass such information on to those outside Riverkeeper, or use confidential information for your own gain.

In addition, information about existing or proposed Riverkeeper research and development (including documents, software, manuals, financial records, and any other materials) belongs to the organization and should be treated with the care given to all types of confidential information. All rights in such materials are at the discretion of Riverkeeper.

If you misuse information, not only do you run the risk of Riverkeeper taking action against you, you may also expose yourself to criminal proceedings.

I, the undersigned, verify that I have been truthful on my application and have read, understood, and agree to the above.
