Position Overview

Riverkeeper is seeking a talented and motivated Human Resources (HR) Manager who can develop effective relationships across the organization, think and plan strategically, and participate in all aspects of the HR function, including recruitment, classification and compensation, training and development, employee wellness and recognition, employee relations, performance management, policies and procedures, administering pay, benefits, and all other HR administration to ensure legal compliance and organizational effectiveness.

Additionally, the HR Manager will be a champion of Riverkeeper's commitment to Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Justice (DEIJ) by working closely with the DEIJ Committee on the implementation of our DEIJ goals and objectives. This newly created role will report to the Chief Financial and Operating Officer (CFOO) and be a vital member of the Finance and Operations team, including helping to support other key operations on the team. This is an exciting opportunity to make a big impact, as this role will be instrumental in helping us achieve our goals related to our newly adopted strategic plan, as well as advancing our goals related to DEIJ.

Duties & Responsibilities

Specific duties and responsibilities include:

- Work closely with DEIJ Committee on the implementation of Riverkeeper's DEIJ goals and objectives. Ensure that DEIJ best practices are integrated into all HR functions.
- Oversee recruitment, hiring and onboarding of staff, utilizing internal resources. Includes expanding our outreach to candidates across diverse audiences and ensuring that job descriptions and interviewing techniques are welcoming and accessible for all.
- Work with CFOO to strengthen, develop and implement banding and compensation policies and practices.
- Create and implement programs, trainings and other initiatives that promote employee engagement and recognition.
- Oversee the performance management program and help support and coach managers on best practices and techniques related to delivering feedback, conducting performance reviews, professional development, etc. Work with managers to ensure staff job descriptions are up to date and that goals and key indicators of success are relevant to each position.

- Work with CFOO to oversee employee relations. Resolve and mitigate employee relation issues, conduct investigations, as necessary, and make recommendations.
- Strengthen a diverse, equitable, inclusive, and just organizational culture through internal communications, staff meetings and other activities such as employee surveys, discussion groups and educational opportunities. (In coordination with DEIJ Committee.)
- Strengthen and ensure equitable policies and practices across the organization, particularly compensation, promotion, benefits, recruitment, and workload policies. (In coordination with DEIJ Committee.) Ensure all policies maintain legal compliance and are adhered to.
- Monitor value of benefits and surface ideas for improvements. Serve as a liaison with benefits broker(s) and vendors to manage relationships, contracts, renewals, as well as evaluation of benefits for cost-effectiveness and employee satisfaction.
- Maintain knowledge of trends, best practices, regulatory changes, and new technologies in human resources, talent management, and employment law.
- Support other key functions of Finance and Operations team, as needed.
- Participate in relevant Riverkeeper staff, board and advisory board meetings.
- Other duties as assigned.

The listed responsibilities are intended to describe the essential functions of the position. They are not an exhaustive list of all job duties, responsibilities, and requirements.

Qualifications

- A minimum of 3-5 years of experience as an HR generalist or specialist, including such areas as recruitment, training, conflict resolution, etc.
- Additional experience in Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Justice (DEIJ) and restorative justice practices are strongly preferred.
- Passion for staff development and DEIJ are a must.
- Collaborative mindset with strong interpersonal, communication, and coaching skills.
- Organizational resourcefulness – ability to navigate complexity and thrive in a fast paced and changing environment using strong judgement and decision-making skills.
- Demonstrated history of working with confidential matters requiring sensitivity and discretion.
- Proven ability to multitask, prioritize, be flexible and problem-solve.
- Highly organized, detail oriented, and self-motivated.
- Ability to plan agendas, lead meetings, and convey expertise.
- Knowledge of payroll and HR software systems a plus (ADP, HRIS, etc.).
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite: Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. G Suite a plus.
- A commitment to the mission, vision, values and goals of Riverkeeper, and to promote justice, equity, diversity and inclusion through work for a non-profit organization.
- A connection to the Hudson River and its watershed, and a general familiarity with Riverkeeper's priority issues.

- Bachelor's degree, or additional work experience, in a relevant field is preferred.
