Government Affairs Internship

Riverkeeper is looking for a summer intern to join our team to work on state and federal government affairs. The Government Affairs intern will partner with the Senior Manager of Government Affairs on legislative affairs, public affairs, research, communications and administrative support. The intern will gain firsthand experience in state and federal level advocacy at an internationally recognized environmental non-profit, working closely with Riverkeeper’s program team of scientists, advocates, and lawyers. This is an exciting opportunity for an emerging environmental leader seeking a fast-paced internship.

We seek independent and motivated students with a commitment to environmental protection and an ability to handle multiple, diverse assignments at the same time. Strong research and writing skills and organized work habits are a must.

- Training: The intern should expect training and onboarding the first week of the internship followed by ongoing mentorship and supervision from the Senior Manager of Government Affairs. The intern should also expect regular check-ins with their supervisor. The intern will receive training and relevant written materials to become versed about and comfortable with the range of Riverkeeper’s campaigns, initiatives, and mission.
- Commitment: July-September A commitment of at least 15 hours per week minimum.
- Location: NYC, Hudson Valley, Mohawk Valley, or Capital Region
- Compensation: $1,500-3,000, 15-25 hours per week
